Notice

No.

Date: 09/11/2024

The attention of all the students (H & G) of the college is hereby drawn to the fact that the central government, the state government and several NGOs have introduced various scholarship schemes so that no meritorious student is prevented from pursuing higher studies owing to poverty. In view of this, the first semester students are asked to apply for fresh scholarships and the second and fourth semester students who are availing themselves of different scholarships are asked to apply for the renewal of the same. The list of scholarships is given below for the information of those concerned:
